It also allows creating color changing animated messages, interactive photographs, title animations and logotypes. It can be used to create a wide range of animated e. What I'd like to be able to do with Cover Commander is place a text in the middle of a 3D scene, or 3D text over a 2D scene. There is actually a tutorial explaining how to use the program that can be found here. To be able to do this, however, you have to use a program called 3D Text Commander (aka R3DCam) to accomplish this. In case you don't know what a R3DCam is, it's "an advanced image-editing software for creating, customizing, modifying, enhancing, and animating images, such as 3D text, text banners, logos, and landmarks, and objects." May 3, 2019 You can use the.txt file and the.jpg file at the same time for placing the text on the scene. Also, you can use multiple images and scenes. 3D Text Commander is used for placing the text on. It's also possible to place Text in 3D, using 3D
