The code is a PHP code which uses mcrypt_generic extension. I have tried the same by directly copying the code snippet from here, but it doesn't work. my code for encryption public function encrypt($key, $data) { $options = array('mode' => MCRYPT_MODE_ECB); $iv = mcrypt_create_iv(mcrypt_get_iv_size(MCRYPT_RIJNDAEL_128, $options), MCRYPT_RAND); return mcrypt_generic($this->algorithm, $key, $data, $iv); } What's weird is that I have checked the value of $key and it is working fine. I am getting following error Warning: mcrypt_generic(): The IV parameter must be as long as the blocksize in /home/tiger/public_html/services/encrypt.php on line 94 I am unable to find my mistake here. The IV is long enough as well. A: The IV should be generated using something like "openssl rand" to keep IVs really random. Since you are using mcrypt, the IV should be exactly as long as the blocksize. A: This is what I did and its working fine.

. [5] "The record also shows that defendant was lawfully sentenced to the minimum term of two years. That was an authorized sentence under the Penal Code (§§ 3020, 3024) and under the ordinance. It was not a punishment or deterrent." (P. 616.) Section 3020 of the Penal Code provides in part: "When any person is convicted of any offense, except manslaughter, assault with intent to commit murder, assault with intent to commit rape, or assault with intent to commit robbery, under the provisions of this chapter it shall be the duty of the court to pronounce the judgment of conviction; and the court shall make such order in respect to the imprisonment and custody of such person as shall be just and proper under the circumstances of the particular case, and as such order may be appealed from, in the same manner and with like effect as any final judgment." Section 3024 of that code provides: "The punishment for a misdemeanor is a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. When any person is convicted of any offense, except manslaughter, assault with intent to commit murder, assault with intent to commit rape, or assault with intent to commit robbery, under the provisions of this chapter it shall be the duty of the court to pronounce the judgment of conviction; and the court shall determine the amount of the fine, and the places of imprisonment, to be as follows: for a misdemeanor, not a habitual, the fine to be not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail, or both; or where an order was made by the court as provided in Section 3020, the fine to be not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment for not more than one year in the county jail, or both." "In case of a misdemeanor, that is, for a 'misdemeanor, not a habitual,' the fine is thus limited, i. e., one thousand dollars (not more than), or one year in the county jail or both; and the power to imprison is as here stated, 'or', not 'as follows,' which leaves no room for the punitive idea of imprisonment."
